

FIGHT IN TRAMCAR.

Disrespectful Scene on Trip from Punahou to Town Last Night.

There was a rough and tumble fight on board the seven o'clock car from Punahou yesterday evening. Two natives engaged in a tussle, punching and pulling each other about and against the quiet passengers. There were ladies aboard going to prayer meeting. Rev. W. A. Gardner was also a passenger and sustained considerable banging from the contestants, besides having his feet trampled upon by them. There is no saying how long the affray might have lasted if the hat of one of the rowdies had not gone overboard. He jumped off the car to get it, and the other fellow did not follow him.

Germany Has Not Bought Kusa.

Berlin, April 26.—It is declared in diplomatic circles here that there is no truth in the statement that Germany has purchased the island of Kusa, of the Caroline group. It is pointed out that the negotiations between Germany and Spain looking to the latter's concession of certain colonies resulted in a deadlock some months ago owing to the fears of the Spanish government that news of the negotiations would arouse popular feeling to a dangerous point.

The Elder Fisher Arrives.

Henry Fisher, father of the Hawaiian and the California National Guard colonels, accompanied Colonel J. H. Fisher home in the Rio de Janeiro. Colonel W. E. Fisher showed his father about town this forenoon. Mr. Fisher is a venerable but quite vigorous gentleman of seventy-four years. He receives the glad Honolulu hand from the hosts of his popular sons' friends. The Hawaiian colonel seems to have enjoyed his short vacation in California.
